

Getting closer to our Business Customers every day!

- Knowledgeable Personal Bankers
- Commercial Checking
- Cash Management Services

CLIC DET AND

New Jersey Herald

Subscribe
Manage My Print Subsc...

People In Business, Jan. 19

Posted: Jan 18, 2014 9:15 PM EST

Updated: Jan 18, 2014 9:15 PM EST

Marlina Schetting, MSW, LCSW, CT, Karen Ann Quinlan Hospice administrator, has been awarded a two-year appointment on the Board of Directors for the New Jersey Hospice and Palliative Care Organization and will chair the Regulatory and Reimbursement Committee. NJHPCO is New Jersey's leading advocate for better end-of-life care for New Jerseyans.

The board meets five times a year at the central location of the American Cancer Society in New Brunswick.

Cecelia Clayton, executive director of the Karen Ann Quinlan Hospice, has been re-elected to a second term of one year on the NJHPCO Board of Directors and serves as board chairman.

...

Sabine Watson, P.E., of Sparta, has joined CP Engineers & Architecture in Sparta as a senior project manager.

Watson is a licensed professional engineer in New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware and Maryland, and is a certified municipal engineer in New Jersey.

"Sabine brings a wealth of leadership and management experience to the organization. The firm and our customers will benefit from having her as a part of the CP family," said Stan Puszcz, one of the managing members of the firm.

With more than 15 years of experience in the civil and municipal engineering fields, Watson has served as the primary town engineer for multiple municipal clients, and has been responsible for addressing the engineering needs of communities, ranging from rural to urban diversification.

Watson earned her Bachelor of Engineering, followed by her Master of Engineering in Civil Engineering, from Stevens Institute of Technology.

...

The Rev. Randolph Parks, of Newton Medical Center in Newton, received the 2013 March of Dimes Nurse of the Year Award in the Nurse Champion category, announced the March of Dimes New Jersey chapter.

Parks, manager of Pastoral Care and chaplain at Newton Medical Center, is a board-certified chaplain through the Association of Professional Chaplains. He is an ordained Baptist minister and endorsed for health care chaplaincy through the Cooperative Baptist Fellowship. He is an important part of the Palliative Care Team at Newton Medical Center, working with the charge nurses, nurse managers and staff nurses on patient care in this area.

...

Richard Ryan, of Hampton, has been selected as December Agent of the Month for the Branchville office of Prudential Gross and Jansen Highlands Realty. This honor is given to the agent who has had the most real estate activity for the month.

Ryan has a B.A. degree from Montclair State and 25 years of independent business ownership. He has been a licensed full-time Realtor since 2002 and is a member of the National Association of Realtors, New Jersey Association of Realtors, Sussex County Board of Realtors and Garden State Multiple Listing Service. He has received the SFR, Short Sales and Foreclosure Resource Certification and is also a Prudential Fine Home and Relocation Specialist.

...

Beth Sylvester, RN, BSN, CHPN, CALA, nurse liaison for the Karen Ann Quinlan Hospice, has successfully completed and received her Certification for Assisted Living Administrator (CALA). The course is provided by Associated Living Training Associates who deliver a team of training associates with extensive knowledge of long-term care training, education, regulatory affairs and direct service provisions. All team members have participated in assisted living workshops, on-site visitations to assisted living residences and have been approved by the Department of Health to conduct assisted living training in New Jersey.

Sylvester has been with the hospice for 15 years, working both in the field and in a supervisory capacity. Her license requires renewal every three years and an ongoing commitment of 30 topic specific CEU hours to keep the license current.

...

Judy Donnelly, AIA, of Hackettstown, will begin a two-year term as secretary of the New Jersey chapter of the American Institute of Architects. The principal owner of Hackettstown-based Donnelly Architecture, LLC, Donnelly has been a member of AIA for more than 10 years, and has served the organization in many capacities including secretary, first vice president and president-elect.

The AIA-NJ's annual awards gala in Shrewsbury Jan. 11 served as an opportunity for AIA-NJ to install its 2014 officers. The American Institute of Architects (AIA) is the professional organization that helps architects serve the public's needs.

...

Barbara Rudd has been promoted to vice president/senior case manager at the private investigation firm of Alexander Toia & Company, LLC.

Rudd celebrates a decade with ATC this year. She researches and investigates layers of information through public records, social networking sites and subscription databases. Within the past two years, she has successfully uncovered millions of dollars owed to clients in judgments, as well as located and served process upon challenging parties involved in civil litigation.

In 2012, she managed an operation that exposed a $100 million fraud by tracking online activities, identifying the perpetrator and supervising a field surveillance team, which covered four states to bring the offender to justice. Late last year, Rudd assisted an insurance company by proving fraud in a 22-year-old disability case.

...

Nikolaos Kritharis, D.M.D., has joined the dental practice of Donald J. Tauber, D.D.S., Salvatore G. Sciascia, D.M.D., Jeffrey B. Tauber, D.M.D., and Kimberly J. Tauber, D.M.D., at 29 Route 23 North, Hamburg.

He graduated Cum Laude from New York University with a degree in chemistry and completed his dental training at the University of Medicine and Dentistry of New Jersey, now Rutgers Dental School in Newark. Kritharis was selected into the Gamma Pi Prosthodontic Honor Society and awarded the Irwin Quinn Memorial Award for empathy, professionalism, management skills and scientific knowledge while caring for his patients. He later completed a general practice residency at JFK Medical Center in Edison.

He is a member of the Academy of General Dentistry, the New Jersey Dental Association, and the American Dental Association.

All content © Copyright 2000 - 2014 WorldNow and New Jersey Herald. All Rights Reserved.
For more information on this site, please read our Privacy Policy and Terms of Service and Mobile Privacy Policy & Terms of Service.