Patrick O'Hara has joined CP Engineers & Architecture of Sparta as senior director of Business Development and Operations, Life Sciences & Engineering.

O'Hara brings more than 20 years of experience in business development, operations, senior leadership, marketing and communications in serving the life sciences industry. O'Hara has expertise globally in FDA regulatory compliance solutions, facilities, utilities and equipment qualification, computer system validation, 21 CFR Part 11 compliance and Prescription Drug Marketing Act compliance services.

"We are extremely excited to have Pat as part of the CP team and the driver of the Life Sciences practice," said Ray Roggero, managing member of CP Engineers & Architecture and life sciences industry veteran.

CP Engineers & Architecture formally launched its Life Science Practice in November 2013 with the addition of O'Hara.

O'Hara has a Bachelor of Arts from St. Bonaventure University.
